3 2 4

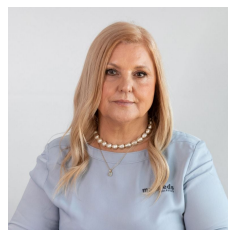

This established 1950's solid family home featuring stained timber floors contrasting neutral tones throughout the property providing a warm and inviting feel. The property is situated on a large, level allotment of approximately 911sqm. Walking distance to local supermarkets, cafe's, shops, medical centres and so much more!

The open plan kitchen, dining and living area is roomy and comfortable for the whole family. The kitchen includes electric cooktop, oven, with ample under bench and overhead cupboards and plenty of bench space.

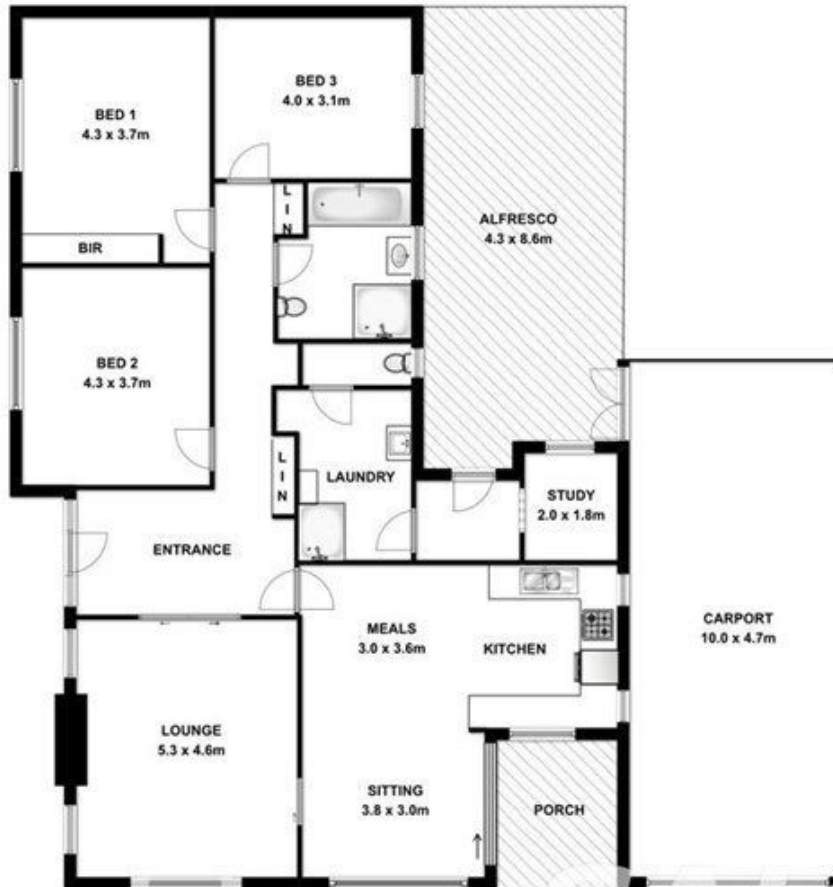

A large, carpeted lounge provides a great family space with so many features including a gas heater, mantlepiece and ceiling fan, with the home being kept comfortable all year round via the ducted reverse cycle air conditioning. This is complemented by external roller shutters that assist in both
